President Approves Constitution Revision

Student Council at a special meeting last Saturday afternoon began the task of amending its constitution.

It was decided that the articles which the members thought needed changing should be submitted to Dr. F. J. Prout to ascertain the administration's viewpoint on such changes.

Dr. Prout gave his tentative approval to most of the changes on Monday afternoon.

A new election system was suggested with the preferential ballot being used at all campus elections.

Open campaigning was one of the issues discussed. It was thought by many of the members that open campaigning for elections should be allowed.

It was proposed that a student cabinet composed of members of the Council and responsible to the larger body be set up. Such a cabinet would meet separately from the Council and its members would be functional.

A student court whose jurisdiction would be above that of house boards and AWS board was also suggested. It would be the highest student court of appeals for students or groups not satisfied with decisions handed down by lower courts.

The group discussed eliminating certain members now in Student Council and reappointing seats so that the student body would be more thoroughly represented. Members-at-large were suggested as a more effective means of representing the wishes of the student body as a whole.

Psych. Honorary Is Organized

Psychology club, a new campus honorary, was formally organized at a business meeting on Nov. 7 under the direction of Dr. E. E. Emme, departmental head. Pete Sherry was elected president; Virginia Moore, vice president; and Mary Ryan, secretary-treasurer.

The primary purpose of the club is to advance the science of psychology and to encourage, stimulate and maintain scholarship of the individual members in all academic fields, particularly in psychology. The club hopes to become a member of Psi Chi, national honorary society in psychology, before the end of the year.

Meetings will be held on the first and third Thursdays of the month, the dues being 50 cents a semester. At the next meeting on Nov. 21 Dr. Westerhof will demonstrate the lie detector.

Westerhof Advises "Blastema" Group

"Blastema" is the name of a new club which has been formed by Bob Walter, Beth Martin, Roger Warner, and Bob Shadwick with Dr. Anthony Westerhof as advisor.

The club has been organized to stimulate interest in psychology. All interested students who do not have the necessary qualifications for belonging to the now active Psychology club are eligible to join.

The organization has been approved by Dr. F. J. Prout and the first meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 14, in 307 of the Laboratory school.

Business Students To Hear Dr. Barr

Dr. F. G. Barr, vice president in charge of industrial relations of National Cash Register Co. at Dayton, will address four Bowling Green groups Thursday.

He will speak before Kiwanis at noon, Rotary and the American Association of University Professors in the evening. Upperclassmen in business administration will hear him in 303 Ad building.

Miss Lois E. Barr, new member of the English faculty at the University, is his niece.

SCF Will Lullaby When Babies Cry

Baby sitters and a Saturday morning nursery school for children of faculty members and married couples attending the University are now available. This service will be rendered by members of the community service interest group of SCF.

Persons desiring a child attendant may call the SCF office between 9 and 11 a.m. one day in advance to make arrangements.

Men and women students will act as baby sitters. No definite charge has been set but any remuneration will be accepted and given to the community service interest group to start a scholarship fund for university students.

Women students acting as attendants must be given ample time to return to their dormitories by 11 o'clock during the week.

A nursery school will be held in the Practical Arts auditorium from 9 until 11 o'clock every Saturday. Contributions for this service will also be added to the scholarship fund.

Campus Opens Postal Service

An official sub-station of the United States Post Office has been established at the Bowling Green State university for the convenience of students.

The east window is for mailing packages and laundry cases. At the west window, students may obtain stamps, money orders, stamped envelopes, and insure registered letters. Money orders will not be cashed here.

The post office has announced temporary hours from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. week days and from 8 to 11:30 a.m. Saturdays.

Print Shop Makes "Invader" Invitations

The Graphic Arts department is printing two colored invitations for the World Premiere of the "Invaders" which will be staged here Dec. 6, 7, and 8. The invitations which have been designed by Doreen Stouffer depict the conflict between science and the humanities and they represent the first extensive color work done by the graphic arts shop which heretofore has confined itself strictly to black and white printing jobs.

The invitations are being sent this week to leading producers and dramatic critics in the country and to the presidents of colleges in Ohio.

All-Campus Contest To Name Streets; Begins On Nov. 20

An all-campus contest to name the streets within the university area will begin Nov. 20. Winner of the contest, sponsored by Student Council, will receive a free ticket to the dance on Pearl Harbor day for which Tony Pastor has been hired by the Veterans Association.

A map of the campus streets will be published in the Bee Gee News next week upon which any student may submit his entry in the contest. Jane Schneider, who originated the idea, suggests that all the streets should be on one theme. For example, each might be named for a tree or a president.

Entries will be judged on the basis of originality and appropriateness to a college campus. Next week, from Wednesday to Friday, a ballot box will be located in the Well in which entries should be dropped. Each entry should have the contestant's name and Bowling Green address plainly written upon it.

Kindergarten Antics Jeopardize Use Of Nest By B. G. Students

High school and kindergarten antics are jeopardizing use of the Nest by the student body. Because of the prevailing conditions at the Nest it appears the majority of students at Bowling Green are not of college caliber. The Nest is supposedly the center of college activity, but when student and faculty members reach the point where they are ashamed to take visitors there then something must be done.

Because all of us pay into the student union fund, the Nest is necessarily a student union and therefore is indirectly owned by the student body. It is a traditional meeting place and a favorite hangout for both students and faculty, but lately it resembles the city dump. It is understood that the university is overcrowded, but even so, such things as uncleanness, breaking dishes, and the habitual practice of throwing cigaret butts on the floor are uncalled for and show a definite lack of spirit, co-operation, and pride in the school.

Dishes Smashed; Silverware Taken

Actual cases were witnessed where students, too shiftless and lazy to pick up dishes from a table, have nonchalantly raised one end of the table and let the dishes fall on the floor. Pop bottles taken from the Nest are scattered in every nook and cranny on the campus. They are taken to rooms, broken, or thrown by the wayside. Each of these bottles requires a two-cent deposit.

The money spent in replacing dishes broken at the Nest would astound the students. Silverware disappears as though it were gold. The Nest has to keep a standing order to replace its silverware supply. Ashtrays follow the same path. Once put on the tables they are never seen again.

Nest Ideal Student Union

Because of its central location, its service and typical college atmosphere, the Nest is classified as the most ideal student union in the state. Today, unfortunately, it cannot begin to uphold such a reputation. The guilt rests with the students. It is your fault and mine.

As students of the university, we must take pride in the upkeep of our buildings and the appearance of our campus. If that pride is lacking, then we should close the doors of our school.

Closing the Nest has been threatened before. It is rapidly becoming an actuality unless the student attitude is changed. Let us all take heed and work together. The Nest is there for our enjoyment and therefore our responsibility.

Assyrian Claims Near East Can Cure Own Ills

by Carole Mulqueeny

Assyrian representative before the United Nations, Mar Eishai Shimun, discussed the question of "what should be done about conditions in the Near East" at the Armistice Day assembly here.

Since before World War I the peoples of the Near East have been repeatedly promised their independence by Great Britain, and, realizing the immense value of their vast oil wells and their strategic geographical position, Britain has continually denied them their freedom. The recent uprisings were the result of corrupt governmental leadership rather than conflicting characteristics among nationalities, according to Mr. Shimun.

Although the Assyrians can not be represented in the United Nations, they are permitted, as a people, to send a representative to state their problems before the assembly.

The peoples of the Near East, the Assyrians, Kurds, Syrians, Jews, Arabs, and Azerbaijanians, have much in common and if left alone could find a solution to their problems in their own way, the speaker declared. Mr. Shimun believes that these problems can be solved only when the people are given the opportunity to establish a representative form of government.

Over 2,500 Students Will See Cage Tilts

How to allow the most students to see the six major basketball games which highlight the Falcon schedule was the problem presented to Student Council Monday night.

By the solution reached, between 2500 and 2700 students will be able to see these games. A minimum reserve of only 400 tickets will be available to non-students. Of these, 150 will be season tickets, 150 will be for each game offered for sale three weeks before each game, and a hundred will be used for spotters, sportswriters, and families of the players.

north dorm rooms

Men assigned to North dorm should call at the Dean of Students' office sometime during this week to make arrangements for definite room assignments.

Any man who is interested in living in North dorm who now lives off campus is asked to leave his name at Dean Conklin's office immediately.

Additional outsiders will view the games if there is not sufficient student demand to absorb the tickets earmarked for them. Student tickets, taxed for five cents, printed with the name of the visiting team and will be offered for sale up to three days before the game. Those which are not bought by them will be sold to the general public.

Although the crowded conditions are expected for only six of the 14 home games, the same system will be followed for the entire schedule. Except for the George Pepperdine on Monday, Dec. 9, the major contests are on Saturday. Included are Western Michigan, Dec. 11, Western Kentucky, Dec. 14, Loyola, Jan. 4, Western Michigan, Feb. 8, and Valparaiso, March 1.

Tickets for the games Dec. 5 and 7 will be sold until 5 p.m. Monday, Dec. 2, due to the Thanksgiving vacation. Other sales will all close three days before the games.

Women Must Apply For Rooms At Once

Because of the large number of applications for on-campus rooms for the second semester, it is necessary to begin the assigning of rooms. Women now living on campus who wish accommodations should call at the office of the dean of students on the dates scheduled below to make application for a room. Students will have priority on the room in which they are now living.

Assignment for next semester will become permanent only when the room rent is paid. All rooms not paid for by Dec. 6 will be assigned to applicants on the waiting list. Those students not planning to return the second semester are requested to report this information to the dean of students.

Those women students who wish to make application for rooms will follow this schedule: Williams hall, Nov. 18 and 19; Shatzel, Nov. 20 and 21; Women's building Nov. 22; Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, and Kappa Delta, Nov. 25 and 26; and Kohl hall, Dec. 9 and 10.

50 Women Students to be Honored At Annual Leadership Dinner

A selected group of 50 outstanding women student leaders will be honored at the sixth annual Leadership Dinner sponsored by the Association of Women Students. Miss Bertha Emerson, assistant director of student affairs at Miami university, will be the guest speaker.

The banquet will be held at the Woman's Club, Friday, Nov. 15, at 6:30 p.m. Music will be provided by a string quartet.

The program will include, in addition to Miss Emerson's address, a selection by the Alpha Phi trio. Penny Cloos will give a reading which will be followed with a solo by Jean Meeks. The program will be concluded with the singing of the Alma Mater and the signing of a permanent guest book by the women guests.

Following the banquet, the Alpha Phi House will entertain Miss Emerson, their guest, and the AWS executive officers, Dean Audrey Kenyon Wilder, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Prout, at a coffee hour.

It Won't Be Like This

by Verne Graham

Limits set upon the number of tickets available for the six major Falcon cage contests may not suit everyone, but the plan worked out Monday night is probably the best possible. Over 2500 students will be able to see these games with only a minimum of 500 in all given to non-students. Previous attendance indicates that the student tickets may be nearly enough to go around for those who are really interested in basketball.

An earlier suggestion to ration students so that half could go to alternate games was defeated. Under such a plan the sad plight of Joe College refused admission at the door would have been quite frequent and student ire aroused.

Whether a student will see every major game or none depends upon himself. Rather than ration out tickets to everyone and let the unused seats remain vacant, the plan adopted permits capacity crowds. But to be among the spectators, a student must put forth enough effort to get to the ticket window before all the seats are gone. If he is not sufficiently interested to do that he need not expect to see the games.

intelligent democracy

by Bruce Sidebotham

The ballots have been counted, and the newly elected are about to take office. Throughout the nation, people are confident of better days, and have shown their dissatisfaction with the old regime. The events of this past election show some of the dangers in a democracy.

The form of government which we now enjoy presupposes that the people who vote will be well informed and intelligent. Naturally, their intelligence will be overbalanced with self-interest, but that is what the founders of our nation wanted. Unfortunately, too many people go to the polls today either misinformed or uninformed and here is danger. Too many people vote with no knowledge of the issues involved and their ignorance may lead the country into disaster with the unwise choice of a leader.

In our lifetime the complexity of government and life has greatly increased. As our problems become more complex and more acute, the need for intelligent voting becomes an all-important factor in good government. Every voter owes it to himself and his posterity to cast his vote based on careful consideration. The safe future of our government depends more and more on the intelligence of the people. If we allow our government to pass into the hands of tyrants, we can rest assured that a great part of the blame lies in votes cast by the ill-informed electorate.

Our system of representative government has survived for more than 150 years, but in that time the industrialization and streamlining of our life has progressed. We, as college students, should be fully aware of the consequences of failing in our responsibilities. If we are aware of these responsibilities and the consequence of negligence, we will know what actions to take to make others fully aware of the situation.

Student Opinion:

World peace is the dominant issue in our time, according to Toledo University students in a poll conducted there recently. The problem of prices in relation to the buying power of the people was considered a major problem. The students voted education and schooling third in importance, while job security—the worry of the immediate future—was listed fourth.

Persian Hears About B.G. From American In Tehran

Hooshang Erfani, newly enrolled pre-engineering student, discloses that there is an American representative in Tehran, Iran, who knows Bowling Green State University and considers it a beautiful college.

"You see," Mr. Erfani explained, "when I finished high school I was asked by this school representative to choose an American college. I asked for one that was beautiful and he suggested Bowling Green. I confess that I have not been disappointed."

At Alborz High School in Tehran, which was under American supervision, Hooshang learned English, which he speaks quite fluently.

Comparing Bowling Green with Tehran, he finds both favorable and unfavorable conditions. He dislikes American dishes and is convinced that he will never acquire a taste for them. Surprised at the large meat consumption in this country, he fails to see any meat shortage.

"In my country we do not eat so much meat. A little of mutton and chicken, but mostly we eat rice. That is our main dish. But I do like your hamburgers, ice cream, and candies."

He explained that he was not too surprised by American women. He has been told that they were different. In comparison he disclosed that young ladies in Iran are not permitted to use powder or lip rouge before marriage. Nor are they permitted to be friendly and less formal than in the presence of their parents. "They usually marry after eighteen, but there is no set age for the men. I am twenty-one and still single," he added.

He finds professors and instructors at Bowling Green "more friendly and less formal" than in Iran. This came as a surprise to him because he had expected them to be "very official."

Sports are carried on extensively in Iran, he disclosed, but the B.G.-Oberlin football game was a new experience for him.

"Our football in Iran is what you call soccer in this country. Also we do not make so much noise."

He enjoyed the game, but added, "Of course, I didn't understand it."

Basketball Draws Limelight As Football Season Ends

With the football season rapidly drawing to a close, the eyes of the campus are changing to the coming basketball season. There are still more than two weeks until the first encounter with Tiffin university but Coach Harold Anderson has already had his proteges working out daily for three weeks.

When Andy sent out his first call for cagers, no less than 205 prospects reported including 37 lettermen and 66 high school captains. So far the practices have been a weeding out process, but now the squad has been cut to a workable size and Anderson is busy molding a smooth working quintet.

Among the former Falcons who are back on the campus are Johnny Payak, Joe Seigferth, Leo Kubiak and Howard Martin. Kubiak and Martin were regulars on last year's team which went to the quarter-finals of the New York Invitational tournament, while Payak and Seigferth were pre-war stars.

Jim Knierim and Tom Inman, two more of last year's regulars, will join the team at the close of the football season.

Added to this list of returning lettermen are a host of freshmen who would be the envy of any cage coach and may break into the starting five before the close of the season. Heading this list are John Pennisi of Syracuse, N. Y., former Morrisville Aggies star; Tommy Carnes, ex All-Ohioan from Canton; and Walt Smitty, who led Akron North to the state finals last spring.

The Falcon cagers, who have won nation-wide fame for Bowling Green, are faced with one of the toughest schedules in the nation. During the season such powerhouse teams as De Paul, Long Island, Boston College and George Peperdine must be faced. The schedule also calls for the Falcons to take part in double-headers in New York, Chicago, Boston and Cleveland.

Spur Club Begins Activities With Ride

A breakfast ride will be the first main event of the Spur club activities. All those interested in joining the club are invited to come to the ride. The time and place will be announced next week.

New officers were elected at the first meeting of the club held last Thursday when Dr. Rhea McCain and the members had dinner at the Woman's Club. Phyllis Brauning is the new president; June McCoy, vice president; Rhoda Anne Young, secretary; and Jolene Bassett, treasurer.

Any student who has taken one unit (8 weeks) of riding and knows how to walk, trot, and canter, is eligible for membership.

Saturday the Spur club members viewed the movie "Black Beauty."

Mrs. Ray Vaughn and Mrs. H. G. Hedden are the advisors of the club.

Toledo Club Invites Swan Club Pageant

The Toledo club bestows a great honor on the cast of "The Loves of Apollo," the Greek pageant produced last week, in extending an invitation to re-enact the drama for its fall opening Nov. 22, at the Toledo Club.

The Toledo university hockey team will come to Bee Gee on Friday and play the Women's all-star hockey team chosen by Miss Andrews and the hockey coaches. After the game, which will be played Friday at 4 p.m. in back of the Women's Gym, the guest team will be served cokes by the all-star team.

Runners Beat Albion But Fall To Wayne

The Falcon harriers broke even in their last two cross-country meets, defeating Albion 25 to 30 and losing a close contest to Wayne 33 to 26.

Bob Petrie and Lyle Johns turned in their best efforts of the year in covering the four mile Wayne course in 20:24 and 20:35 respectively. Johns sprinted the last 300 yards to edge the first Wayne runner by one step. Walt Terrel finished seventh for Bee Gee.

In a return meet Albion again met defeat at the hands of Bowling Green. Petrie established a new record for the 3.4 mile Albion course with a time of 17:27. Terrell, Johns, Scott, and Albury, finished second, fourth, eighth, and ninth respectively to make the score 25 to 30.

Bonaventure Tops Falcons By A Narrow 13-9 Margin

The Bee Gee Falcons went down to defeat before a powerful St. Bonaventure eleven at Olean, N. Y. last Saturday by a score of 13 to 9. The Brown Indians outweighed BG and had much more speed. After the kickoff it only took 11 plays for St. Bonaventure to score a touchdown.

The Falcons then took the kickoff and began to make ground themselves, much of it on passing.

Russ Maples came out with a bad back injury and the burden fell on Ennis Walker and Jim Baxter. Baxter made the mistake of punting to halfback Collela, brother of Phil who trained here with the Cleveland Rams and Browns. Collela set off on a 67 yard punt return for a touchdown, being touched only by three Falcons.

That was on the first play of the second quarter and that was all of the scoring that could be manufactured by the New Yorkers, coached by Hugh Devore, head coach at Notre Dame during the war.

Once more the Falcons received and moved steadily down the field. On a couple of occasions they had men in the end zone or open field for certain touchdowns, only to see forward passes slip out of their grasp.

They were stalled on the St. Bonaventure 30 on downs. The

Burdett Fry, 'The Man In Orange,' Is Old Hand At Baton Twirling

by Gene Dinkel

The man behind the whirling baton, that spins above the band as it marches down the field, is Burdett Fry, freshman from Liberty Center, O.

The "spinning stick" first attracted Fry about five years ago, when he decided to teach the art to himself. A variety of difficult and brilliant maneuvers were perfected over the course of the half-decade.

Our "spinning student" was drum major in Liberty High School's band before coming to Bee Gee. At present he is also drum major in nine other bands. Among them, Sons of the American Legion band in Toledo, Elks band at Napoleon, Ohio.

Fry holds a number of honors and championships. He was the state champion of Ohio in 1944 and 1945. This year he won it again, in Cleveland. He is also champion of northwest Ohio, and Henry, Wood, Fulton and Williams counties. Burdett is second place man in the Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan Section. Being eligible for the national championships at Chicago, he plans to take a twirl at that.

He was offered a job with Ringling Brothers Circus last summer, but he declined it in order to further his education. Here at Bowling Green he is majoring in speech and dramatics with an eye toward the stage.

latter could not gain and on third down dropped into long punt formation. A bad pass from center resulted in a 10 yard loss. Again they went into long punt. This time the center's pass went over the tailback's head and bounded into the end zone. Dave Martin tore after it and fell on the ball just too late. It was just out of the end zone for a safety and two points. If he had gotten there sooner, it would have been a touchdown and either a tie or victory for BG eventually.

Then with the score 13 to 2, the Falcons really went back to work, driving the ball down the field to the nine yard line where Walker flipped a pass to Max Minnich to the left and he stepped over the goal line for a touchdown. Barnes made good the placement.

The half ended immediately after with a score 13 to 9 and that was the way the game ended, because neither team could get away to do any scoring in the second half.

Final Game Saturday Pits University Against Xavier

by Bill Day

The Falcon gridgers possessing an impressive record so far this season will meet the Musketeers of Xavier university in their final game of the year Saturday on the Bowling Green gridiron. These two teams met in 1943 for the first time with Bowling Green emerging the victor by a decisive 40 to 0 margin.

Cooper Will Select Twenty Swimmers

Approximately 20 men will be selected for the University swimming team, according to Coach Sam Cooper. This week will end the preliminary conditioning of the 35 candidates who are on the squad.

Next Monday night at 8:30 there will be a meeting of the prospects for the purpose of discussing plans and ironing out conflicts of schedule. Following the meeting Cooper plans to begin season practice in earnest.

Tom Stubbs, free style, Paul Stark, back stroke, Ray Murry and Phil Hodes, divers, are the only Falcon veterans who are back with the team.

So far Cooper and Elmer Brown, assistant coach, have scheduled seven meets but hope to have a total of 12 before the season begins.

Jayvees Topple Junior Bishops

The 'Rinkydinks,' Falcon B grid squad coached by Fred Marsh, avenged an earlier 7-7 tie, by triumphing 13-0 over Ohio Wesleyan Friday afternoon. A couple of hundred fans, including the University cheer leaders, braved the chilly winds to witness the only junior varsity home game.

The win, which came in the final game of the year, evened the team's season record, having lost to Kent State, 7-0, and tied Ohio Wesleyan in its previous tilts. The first score came when the game was very young. Joe Kuzma, Fremont fullback, blocked a Wesleyan punt and fell on the ball on the two yard line. He went over on the next play, and the placement was good for the extra point.

They scored their second touchdown in the waning minutes of the fourth quarter. A clipping penalty on a punt return pushed the Junior Bishops back to their one-yard line. Rodney Lash of New London returned a Bishop punt five yards to the Wesleyan 20, setting the ball in scoring position.

Lash made a first-down on the Bishop 5-yard line on fourth down. Then M. J. Augustine, of Napoleon, went over from the two-yard line on the fourth down. The place-kick for extra point was blocked.

Tentative Date Set For Outing Club Hike

The next event will be a Portage River hike Saturday, Nov. 16 or 23, weather permitting. The members will meet at the Women's building at 11 a.m. and each one is asked to bring her lunch and something to cook on a stick. Watch the bulletin board for the final announcement.

The Falcons will go into this game as the favorites because of comparative scores against Miami university. Bowling Green came out on the short end of a 6 to 0 score against highly-favored Miami while the Musketeers were soundly trounced by the Redskins 28 to 6. Miami scored its four touchdowns against Xavier in the first 16 minutes of the game and finished the fray with its reserves. But against the Falcons the Redskins were pressed all the way.

Bowling Green has lost Yoder and Lowry in the last two weeks due to injuries, but they have been ably replaced by several freshmen and Whittaker's boys should be able to conclude the season with another mark in the win column. Max Minnich and Jack Woodland have been doing outstanding work in carrying the brunt of the back field work lately.

Stanton Ense, giant end, and Tom Dugan, diminutive back, have been troublesome to all Musketeer opponents this fall. Dugan, a fast, shifty runner, returned a punt 80 yards against Miami only to have it called back because of a clipping penalty. Peter Marino, guard, has been doing brilliant work on the line all season.

The game will start at 2 p.m. and a large crowd is expected to witness the Falcons in their final appearance of the current campaign. The Musketeers will be out to avenge the 1943 defeat by Bowling Green and the audience should be treated to a thrill-packed contest.

Predixions

Along with everyone else's, our predixions were cuffed around a little this past week and we finished with 15 out of 22 right—for an average of .682, and our season average dropped to .733 or 85 right out of 116.

Still looking for punishment we predict:

Speaker Challenges College Students

Dr. Cleo Blackburn spoke to the members of Student Christian Fellowship Sunday evening on racial problems in the United States.

He presented a challenge to the students at colleges by telling them that if they were not prepared to be tolerant here at college, they would never be able to govern their future life properly.

"It's up to you people of college age to break down present day prejudices," he said.

Dr. Blackburn, director of Flanner House, the negro community center in Indianapolis, discussed the problems of all races in trying to maintain peace throughout the world.

Homecoming Award Won First By PiKA

First group to win the Alpha Chi Omega cup awarded for the best residence decoration for Homecoming week-end was Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. A smashed car on a miniature football field with the words "B.G. or Bust" was being pushed back by a Falcon player. It symbolized the 14-0 Oberlin defeat.

Second place was awarded to Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Kohl hall, third place, and Sigma Nu

Kappa Zeta Held Initiation Tuesday

Following "Hell Week" Tuesday, four pledges were initiated into Kappa Zeta Pi sorority. The ceremony took place in the sorority lounge last night.

Alice Burbridge, Betty Lange, Martha Hart, and Jo Ann Wilson are the new initiates. A compact inscribed with the Greek letters of the sorority was presented to the outstanding pledge.

SAE Initiates Five Men Sunday

The fraternity held an informal party for Tri-Lambda sorority last Friday evening.

Dinner Precedes Kappa Sig Dance

Preceding the "Stardust" formal on Nov. 16, a buffet dinner will be held for all members of Kappa Sigma Delta fraternity and their dates in the faculty room of the Nest.

Engineers Will Elect At Next Meeting

The Engineering club will have election of officers at its next meeting the first Thursday in December. Virgil Bidlack, who was president last year, has charge of the meetings until elections.

Approximately 40 students were present at the meeting last Thursday in 400 Science building. Loren Janzer, from Urschel Engineering Company, spoke to the group on the Aspects of Mechanical Engineering, and illustrated his talk by projecting pictures on a screen. After the program a nominating committee was picked from volunteers to select candidates for the coming election.

The club welcomes any new members who would like to join. Meetings are the first Thursday of every month.

Social Committee Purchases Lamps

The social committee recently purchased 25 new spotlights to be used for dances and other all campus activities.

Lamps had not yet been available since 1943. Because only three were available for all of the functions this year, the need for new ones was evident.

Colored rondelles of red, blue, green, and yellow may be attached to the lamps for effective lighting.

These spotlights are to be used only for all campus activities. They are not to be loaned out for private functions.

Oberlin Gets Lights For Night Games

Oberlin College's athletic field will be equipped for night lighting as a result of a purchase from the War Assets Administration. More than 700 generators are still available at the Erie proving ground, Lacarn.

Oberlin bought, from the Cleveland regional office, two 3KVA generators to supply the power which operates under a maximum load of 3000 watts. They run 80 minutes per gallon of gasoline. An average automobile battery of 6 volts is all that is required to put them into immediate operation.

Gamma Phi Presents Miami Rush Party

Thirty five members of the local chapter of Gamma Phi Beta went to Miami university, Oxford, Sunday where they presented "Carnation House," traditional formal rush party.

This party, given by the Bowling Green chapter, was the first Gamma Phi Beta rush party at the Miami campus. The chapter there will be installed next spring.

Alpha Xi Delta's Attend Province Day

Representing the local chapter of Alpha Xi Delta at Province Day, Oct. 16, were Marcia Hachtel, president, and Virginia Marion, rush chairman. Province Day, an annual event which follows the provincial convention, was held at Baldwin-Wallace college.
